

Heritage Writtle

Plaques to record the WW1 airfields in Writtle and Widford (see Writtle News no 226) will be unveiled on Sunday November 4th starting at 2.00pm at the Writtle site overlooking the Writtle airfield. The first plaque will be situated at the end of St Johns Green at the entrance to the cycle path to Chelmsford. From there we will be going to the Writtle Sports and Social Club Paradise Road for the unveiling of the Widford plaque. This overlooks the area of the Widford Industrial Estate where the Widford airfield was based.

You are very welcome to come along to this important event to commemorate the conclusion of the Great War.

Anyone with memories from relatives about the airfield or the planes during WW1 please contact us
