

Calling all past pupils of Writtle schools and those with ancestors in Writtle.

'Educating Writtle and nearby - School Days and Childhood Memories'

This book has recently been launched, the third in the 'History of Writtle' series, researched by Writtle Archives. The well illustrated book costs £7 and contains more than 100 pages of historical research on the 19th century private schools, National and Board schools, the later Council schools plus up to date information on the present schools. School memories from past pupils and teachers have been collected as well as memories of life at Greenbourne, the Boys Home on the Green. Other chapters follow the history of Highwood, Radley Green, Chignal, Widford and Roxwell schools.

Copies are on sale at Writtle Post Office, Writtle Library and Writtle Archives, or by post from Wendy Hibbitt 2 Green Close Writtle Essex CM1 3DX
