

Writtle CARDS next production is 'The Glass Menagerie' by Tennessee Williams

Performances commence at 8pm at Writtle Village Hall from Thursday 2nd to Saturday 4th February 2012.

Set in St Louis, Missouri, well into the depression of the 1930s, The Glass Menagerie is a "memory-play" about the Wingfield family, told through the memories of the eldest Wingfield child, Tom.

The Glass Menagerie was Williams's first successful play, winning the New York Drama Critics Circle Award for its premiere Broadway production in 1945; he went on to become one of America's most highly regarded playwrights.

Tickets are £7 and can be reserved on 07742 301367 or by simply replying to this e-mail.

The Glass Menagerie marks Writtle CARDS 100th production! To help celebrate this landmark, we will be giving the person who books the 100th seat for The Glass Menagerie 2 free tickets to our June and October productions this year!
